

UK-Jordan Centenary Climate
Competition for Young Learners and Young Adults

Terms and Conditions

08 September 2021

- The final review panel will take place digitally following the closing date referred to in section 3 above.
- The competition is for young children and young adults (ages 6-30) currently residing in Jordan.
- The entries will be judged by a panel of judges appointed by the British Council. The judges' decision is final and binding.
- No correspondence will be entered into with the unsuccessful participants.
- The prizes of the competition presented by the British Embassy are personal to the winners and cannot be transferred to any third party.
- The prizes of the competitions presented by the British Council in the form of courses can be transferred to a third party.
- The British Council accepts no responsibility for failure to notify winning participants or failure to deliver the prizes where such failure results from the provision of inaccurate contact details by the participants or from the acts or omissions of any third party (including, without limitation, any internet or postal service provider) and shall have no liability to any participant if it is prevented from or delayed in delivering any aspect of the Centenary Competition by acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond its reasonable control.
- The British Council does not offer any insurance in connection with the prizes of the competition. Each winner may arrange their own insurance in respect of the prizes offered, if applicable.

Personal data

The British Council will securely collect and store the names and email addresses of the participants and the additional contact details of participants for the period of one year. The British Council will use this personal data for the following purposes:

- managing the relationship between the participants and the British Council and the British Embassy in Jordan.
- communicating with participants to answer their queries about the competition.
- communicating with the competition winners and arranging delivery of their prizes.

- and marketing and publicity related to the competition and organised by the British Council and the British Embassy.

By participating in the competition, participants consent to their personal data being processed by the British Council and the British Embassy in accordance with, and for the purposes set out in this section.

Participants can exercise their rights to access their personal data held by the British Council and withdraw their consent to the processing of their personal data by sending an email, accompanied by a scanned photocopy of their valid passport and guardian's consent form (under 18 years) to jordacentenarycompetiton@britishcouncil.org.

Publicity and rights

Upon contacting shortlisted applicants, the British Council will request photographs to be used in publicity materials. The British Council intends to publish the names, contributions, and photographs of the winners on the British Council's websites, social media channels (e.g. Facebook pages, Twitter pages, etc), press releases, and in other promotional and marketing material. In addition, the British Council may write and publish articles and produce videos about the winner's submissions. By entering the competition, each participant agrees to the use of their name and image and agrees to co-operate with any such publicity or marketing if they win a prize.

Participants will retain copyright in the entry material that they submit to the British Council. By entering the competition, each participant grants the British Council, free of charge, permission to use the submission material (including, without limitation, modifying and adapting it for operational and editorial reasons) in any media worldwide for purposes connected with the competition. Participants who win grant the British Council further permission to publish and exhibit their Submission material (including, without limitation, modifying and adapting it for operational and editorial reasons) in print and any media worldwide for any British Council purpose.

Each participant confirms that the submission material is their original work, is not defamatory, and does not infringe any English or local laws, that they have the right to give the British Council permission to use it for the purposes specified above, and that all necessary consents for the submission of the submission material have been obtained.

General

The British Council may disqualify or refuse to accept the submission of any participant who does not meet the challenge criteria or does not otherwise comply with the competition rules.

The competition rules shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any disputes or claims (including, without limitation, non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with the competition.

Acceptance of Challenge Rules

By participating in this competition, participants are deemed to accept these competition rules and all articles included in the present document.